

Are We Still Democracy's Colleges?

Practical Solutions to Balancing Community Colleges' Multiple Missions

Tour of Tioga Place, TC3's Ithaca Extension Site

- Martha Hubbard, Director, TC3.biz

Workforce Development Partnerships

- TC3.biz Programs - Martha Hubbard
- Workforce NY One-Stop Programs and Community College Relationships
- Brian Young, Director, Ontario County Workforce Development and Chairperson of the Finger Lakes Works One Stop Operator Consortium

Other TC3 "Practical Solutions"

Our Mission:

We serve our community by meeting educational needs, creating an environment for student success, and preparing our students and ourselves for citizenship in a global society.

- John R. Conners, Provost and Vice President of the College at Tompkins Cortland Community College in Dryden, New York

Description of Our Students and "Multiple Missions"

- Traditional commuter students
- Adult commuter students
- Residential students – from nearby and from farther
- Students who use us as a stepping-off point
- Students who use us to drag themselves out of poverty or other difficult circumstances
- Students currently in the workforce developing new skills or upgrading

Practical Solutions

- Online courses – John Conners
- Integrated marketing project – John Conners
- Residence Life – Amy Trueman, Director, Counseling, Career & Transfer Services
- PACE – Amy Trueman
- Pathways scholarship program – Amy Trueman
- Global – Khaki Wunderlich, Dean of Organizational Success and Learning at the Baker Center for Learning, Tompkins Cortland Community College
- StrengthsQuest – Khaki Wunderlich
- CollegeNow – Khaki Wunderlich
- GED programs – Amy Trueman

Q&A, Discussion